LOCALS.

CITY TAXES.—Your city taxes for 1909 are due. Please call and settle. B. D. Carter, collector.
HAND-PAINTED China makes handsome and appropriate wedding presents. See Mrs. Catherine McClary.
I HAVE one McCormick mower and one hay rake will sell cheap, rather than to carry over. E. T. Pence. 2t.
LITTLE PERSONALS.—Born, to the wife of George Rankin, a boy; to the wife of P. Long, a daughter, and to the wife of Thomas Plummer, a daughter.
PLEASE do not ask us for credit on school books which are sold at State contract prices and are not our books. Lysa Bros., druggists, Crab Orchard, book depository.
THE Juvenile Fair at Stanford fair grounds to-day promises to be an interesting event. The children have been working hard for the success of the enterprise and we trust their efforts will be well rewarded. Go and help the little fellows and at the same time see how they can conduct a fair. All of the cakes, pies, jellies, melons, etc., exhibited will be eaten on the grounds. Better be on hand and get your share. Admission, adults 15c; children 10c.

GOOD Frazier cart for sale. J. J. Belden Stanford.
PURE cannel coal at J. H. Baughman & Co's. Try a load.
LET me insure your barn and tobacco. W. A. Tribble, Stanford.
PHONE No. 188 when you want tinning and plumbing done. W. K. Warner.
GET Olympian Springs water at Shugars & Tanner's. They are sole agents for it.
THOMAS J. BURLESON has been appointed postmaster at Waynesburg to succeed Taylor Wesley, resigned.
FOR SALE.—Beautiful five-room cottage, garden, barn lot and barn, on Logan avenue. Price and terms to suit purchaser. Cicero Reynolds.
THE C. W. B. M. will have a meeting in the lecture room of the Christian church Wednesday afternoon at the usual hour. All members are requested to be present prepared to pay their dues.
CHAS. D. WEBB, city editor of the Bourbon News, who used to hold a "sit" on this paper, is a candidate for city judge of Paris. There is one thing at least in his favor. He will give weight to the office, as he weighs something less than a ton.
MR. J. T. CARSON writes from Lebanon that he can beat Sam Owens' big tobacco leaf. His tenant found three leaves which measured 55 inches and he has a field in which many leaves as long as a tobacco stick—four feet, two inches—can be found. Next.
REUNION.—There will be a reunion of the Blue and Gray at the campgrounds one mile East of Kings Mountain on Sept. 15, 16 and 17. Good speakers will be on hand and amusement of various kinds will be on the grounds. Write to H. C. Leach, H. Sweeney and J. T. Miller, committee, for full particulars.
FARMERS' SHOW.—At Q. R. Jones' beautiful park just below Yosemite, in Casey county, on Saturday, Sept. 18, a farmers' show will be held. Stock of all kinds will be exhibited and farm products will be displayed. It will be an excellent place to dispose of your mule colts. Write Q. R. Jones, Yosemite, for particulars.
At Turnersville church Sunday night a fellow who had taken aboard too much "cream of hops" or some other decoction of beer, stretched himself out on a seat and went to sleep. Rev. D. M. Walker, who was holding the meeting, had better eyesight and probably more grit than the church deacons and elders and asked him to go out. He refused to vacate and the preacher had to use some force in ejecting him. The young man might not have intended to disturb religious worship but he did so and he committed a grave offense when he did.
A GRAND PICNIC at Moreland by the Modern Woodmen of America on Wednesday, Sept. 8th. Exercises before noon will consist of pig race, apple biting, sack race, etc. Afternoon grand parade, team drill and addresses by State Deputy DeHart, of Louisville, and C. A. Atkinson, of Chicago. Cake walk and ball game, after which the people will enjoy an elegant ice cream supper at M. W. A. Hall. Class adoption at night. Music for the day by the Middleburg band. Committee: Arthur Myers, J. K. Helm, Walter Spears, W. D. Hutchison and J. H. Minks.
HON. HARVEY HELM, of Stanford, Congressman from the Eighth Kentucky district, was here to-day en route home from the Shelby County Fair. Mr. Helm said that even the machinations of the wicked at Washington couldn't kill the prosperity in "God's country"; that the crops and the sights at the county fairs in his district were as cheering as the faces of the well-dressed, cheerful and happy people. Asked if he wanted to go back to Washington after his present term, Mr. Helm said that he certainly did, and would certainly be a candidate for reelection; but that he would rather not talk about the matter till the democratic ticket in Louisville and that in every county in Kentucky were safe in port at the close of the coming November election. He believes that the State democracy, if it is to have a future, is as much interested in the result in Louisville this fall as are Louisvillians themselves.—Louisville Times.

LEAVE your order for Swift's or Globe Fertilizers with E. T. Pence, Stanford.
FOR SALE.—A splendid building lot on Logan Avenue, next to Mr. D. M. Anderson's. Mrs. Nancy Logan.
BISHOP.—Mrs. Hattie Bishop, who has been ill for some time, died at her home at Hustonville Sunday night, aged about 65 years.
FIRE broke out at the home of Mr. Wm. Warren on Water Works Street Friday, but was extinguished before any damage was done. A defective flue was the cause.
A 15-YEAR-OLD daughter of J. H. Harned, who lives on Mr. E. P. Woods' farm, died and was buried Saturday. This is the second child Mr. Harned has lost in two months.
REV. A. V. SIZEMORE, who was pastor of the Baptist church here a number of years ago, is dead in Louisville, where he went for treatment. He was holding a pastorate at Bardonia when he became ill.
AT the Boys' Fair at Danville Friday, W. M. Duncan, of this place, got the blue tie with his pony in the roadster ring. Morgan Smith Baughman, Jr., got two reds on his fine pony and second money in the ring for the best boy rider.
MISS ROBERTA O'BANNON has resigned as teacher in Stanford Graded School and has accepted a position as teacher of English and Latin in the High School at Castalia, O. The trustees will elect her successor in the next few days, as school will begin next Monday morning.
CAL PADGETT, of Waynesburg, aged about 25, was brought here by Messrs. T. S. Reynolds, W. D. Johnson and W. H. Singleton Saturday for trial on a writ of lunacy. He was ordered to the Lakeland Asylum. Padgett is a son of Zack Padgett and has been in bad shape mentally for some time.
SUMMER SALE OF WALL PAPERS.—Greatest reduction ever made in wall papers. Extra good quality of stylish papers, per roll as low as 3c. Don't fail to see the greatest assortment before it is picked over, as the prices that have been put on this stock will make it go in a whoop. Such bargains have never before been offered here. We have a lot of high standard paints that we are closing out at cost. A. E. Gibbons, Main street, Danville, Ky.
LIBERTY FAIR.—Good crowds attended the Liberty fair each day and the show of stock and races were about as good as usual. Lincoln county furnished much of the show stock and the owners took their full quota of the premiums. The fair was held on the Whipp grounds this year and while it was more convenient to town, shade was lacking. The promoters of the enterprise should be able to declare a good dividend. Editor John Henry Thomas was president and John Evans, Jr., secretary.
MR. J. HARVEY VANHOOK, one of the best men and democrats in Pulaski or any other county, was nominated for county clerk by the democrats at their convention at Somerset Saturday. We congratulate him on their wise selection. Mr. Vanhook lived for many years in Lincoln county, where he is known and respected by all. Notwithstanding the big republican majority he has to overcome, we are informed that he has a fighting chance to win and he will leave no stone unturned in his effort to beat his republican opponent. The office he seeks is now being held by a democrat and it is but fitting that it should be turned over to another gentleman of that political belief. The more our Pulaski friends see of Mr. Vanhook the better they will like him and it would not surprise us to hear after Jan. 1st that couples wanting marriage licenses will call on him for them. So mote it be.
